a friend of the city of Carbondale by reminding us, by his words and by his deeds, that the Pioneer Spirit, the spirit that made the Pioneer Days celebrations in 1981 a resounding success, can, in conjunction with the rich history of Carbondale (its buildings, its traditions, its culture) be put to work, in the service of the present and of the future, by the enlightened members of the community, as a force for community betterment. David Baum, in the past seventeen months, has, in other words, reminded us of the fact that the Pioneer Spirit, economic growth, community development and historical preservation are wholly compatible.

CONCLUSION.

David Baum, for having generously given of your time and talents on behalf of Carbondale City Hall during the past nine months, Carbondale City Hall is very much indebted to you. For having generously given of your time and talents on behalf of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall during the past nine months, the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall is very much indebted to you. For having generously given of your time and talents on behalf of the city of Carbondale during the past seventeen months, the city of Carbondale is very much indebted to you. Because of your generosity, we are all the better. On behalf of Carbondale City Hall, on behalf of the Committee to Restore Carbondale City Hall, and on behalf of the city of Carbondale, therefore, it is my pleasure to say to you now, "Thank you."
